Wizz Air is increasing its operations from Turin. In the winter season 2021/2022 there will be 12 destinations in the airline's network connected by Torino Airport: in addition to the new entry Skopje, also Bacau, Bari, Bucharest, Catania, Chisinau, Iasi, Naples, Palermo, Tirana and the two ski routes San Petersburg and Warsaw.

Andras Rado, Wizz Air Senior Communications Manager, commented: “We are proud to announce this new route from Italy, for a destination full of charisma and waiting to be discovered, which once again intensifies the intercultural exchanges between countries, fundamental for the human and personal formation of each of us. Wizz Air takes the well-being of its customers very seriously, so that they can enjoy a safe and hassle-free travel experience, always aboard our modern fleet”.

Andrea Andorno, Torino Airport Chief Executive Officer, commented: “We are pleased with the start of the new Turin-Skopje flight announced today by Wizz Air. The airline thus expands its international network by opening a route that had never been operated before from Turin: this allows our territory to be directly connected for the first time with Macedonia. Wizz Air has increased its commitment at our airport exponentially over the past two years, going from 2 flights in summer 2019 to 12 next winter. After having grown in terms of destinations and traffic on the national network during the summer season 2021, now Wizz Air also looks to the international segment from Turin, thus giving an important signal on the growth prospects of the airport in the coming months on this market”.
