Caselle Torinese, 20th February 2020 – The offer of flights to Naples from Torino Airport grows in the 2020 summer season.

From next March 29, in fact, there will be a strong enhancement of the offer for the Campania destination compared to summer 2019, in particular thanks to the doubling of flights in 2020 planned by easyJet.

Three airlines operate in the summer on the Turin-Naples route: in addition to easyJet, also Volotea and Blue Air. Overall, the offer from Turin increases by +27% in terms of flights and by +54% in terms of seats on sale.

This is the detailed offer for each carrier:

- easyJet: the airline operated 6 weekly frequencies in summer 2019, while in summer 2020 it adds 7 frequencies, for a total of 13 flights per week: two daily flights are operated every day, except on Saturdays, served with 1 frequency. The increase in seats on sale in the 2020 summer season doubles (+ 107%) compared to 2019, exceeding 104 thousand seats (for a total of almost 54 thousand additional flight seats on the whole period).
- Volotea: in 2020 the carrier offers 6 flights a week, with daily operations, except on Saturdays; there are almost 40,000 flight seats on sale throughout the summer (for a total of over 7,700 additional flight seats) and the increase in flights in 2020 is +13% on 2019.
